RATIONALE

At Delves Lane Primary School, we believe all children and adults in our school are important. Everyone in the school should feel happy, safe, secure and should know their rights. We are committed to enabling all children to access education successfully. Part of this commitment is concerned with establishing a high standard of behaviour throughout the school. The way in which pupils and adults behave has a profound effect on all the work that is undertaken. Therefore, a well thought out approach to this aspect contributes directly to both the social and learning aspects of our school.

In our school we: -

Develop
Enthusiastic
Learners
Valuing
Everyone's
Success

Our School Values are at the heart of all we do at Delves Lane Primary School and we aim for all children to learn to embody them:

Belonging – At Delves Lane we promote strong community links and a secure sense of belonging

Kindness – Provide a safe, welcoming, caring environment in which each individual is valued, where everyone is kind towards one another and where learning can flourish

Aspiration – To provide an irresistible curriculum which develops children's love of learning and sparks curiosity

Resilience – Inspire a sense of co-operation, embracing challenge, self-discipline and responsibility

Unity — Encouraging the enjoyment of physical activities and games and increasing awareness of the importance of healthy living

Respect – Enable children to understand and appreciate the world in which they live and develop sensitivity towards individuals, groups and nations within it

We recognise that high standards are best promoted when all stake-holders have a shared understanding of what is acceptable and unacceptable behaviour. We have the following aims for our Positive Behaviour Policy at Delves Lane Primary School:

- Children will learn in an inclusive, organised, attractive, friendly and stimulating environment
- Pupils will be respected for their personal qualities, valued for their achievements and acknowledged for their individual needs
- Children will be encouraged to become confident, enthusiastic, self-motivated and independent learners
- Pupils will feel valued as a member of the school community
- Teachers will deliver well planned, engaging and organised learning opportunities in which high standards will be encouraged
- All stakeholders will be expected to follow the school rules, respect rights and consider others

RIGHTS RESPECTING SCHOOL

Delves Lane Primary is a Rights Respecting School and as such, strongly believes in and promotes the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child. We know the importance of children knowing their rights to an education, a safe and friendly environment, a voice and the right to rest and play. Within this learning, it is vital children learn what their roles and responsibilities are to ensure their own and other people's rights are met. Working in partnership with parents and the community, the school endeavours to provide a well-ordered, caring learning environment where pupils can build on their experiences to develop intellectually, to become self-reliant and to cooperate with others.

This policy exemplifies these rights and our practice aims to ensure that the following rights are adhered to:

- Article 3 - The best interests of the child must be a top priority in all things that affect children
- Article 19 - Every child has the right to be protected from hurt or mistreatment
- Article 28 - Every child has the right to an education. Discipline in schools must respect children's dignity
- Article 29 - Every child has the right to an education which develops their talents and abilities, and enables them to live peacefully, protect the environment and respect other people
- Article 31 - Every child has the right to relax, play and take part in a wide range of cultural and artistic activities

At Delves Lane we educate children about statutory protected characteristics and we do not tolerate bullying of any form. We believe all members of the school community deserve to be consistently treated with dignity.

We acknowledge that behaviour is communication and it may be communicating a number of things including a communication, sensory or social, emotional and/or mental health (SEMH) need. Therefore, we use methods such as conflict resolution and restorative conversations to teach children how to manage their own behaviour, in a way that will be supportive to their future.

We have high expectations of behaviour and high expectations of all staff to ensure that the right support is in place to enable children to thrive. At Delves Lane Primary School all responses from adults to the behaviour of children are informed by the principle of considering what the child is learning from the adult's response, and how that response will support the child with their future behaviour; this is based on our whole school compassionate ethos and a research informed approach. A foundation of our school is that all staff understand the importance of positive relationships between staff and children. Furthermore, children are encouraged to choose a 'trusted adult' who they can go to if they ever have any concerns.

We work in collaboration with parents and welcome questions and conversations about our approach to behaviour at Delves Lane. All staff across the school including lunch/playtime support staff follow this policy and are trained in our whole school strategies.

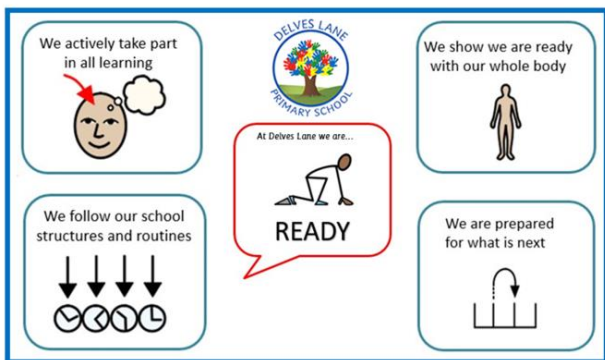

Our Golden Rules:

"Be Ready, Respectful and Safe". (Dix, P. 2017).

- Be Ready (Article 28 – The right to an education)
- Be Respectful (Article 29 – Your education should develop your talents and abilities and help you live peacefully, protect the environment and respect other people)
- Be Safe (Article 19 – The right to be protected from hurt or mistreatment)

Our children and teachers use our school rules to co-create our behaviour principles (these are outlined below – we have four principles per rule). These in turn inform our whole school behaviour curriculum (see Appendix 1: Behaviour Curriculum – The Delves Lane Way) which includes a “What Makes Good” for each behaviour principle. These behaviour principles are explicitly taught and are consistently referred to throughout the year and at the beginning of every half term. This is to re-establish expectations by everyone across the school to ensure these rules are embedded and sustained. In line with our whole school approach to behaviour and our inclusive ethos, we understand that some children require more support to meet this expectation.

“At Delves Lane we are READY”

At Delves Lane we encourage children to take ownership of their learning and show readiness to learn by being present, positive and engaged.

“At Delves Lane we are RESPECTFUL”

Relationships and attitudes at Delves Lane are built on mutual respect. Respect means we accept somebody for who they are, even when they are different from us or we don't agree with them. This respect extends to ourselves, one another, our equipment and our school environment.

“At Delves Lane we are SAFE”

It is essential that everyone in our school community feels safe at school and that we conduct ourselves in a way that ensures the safety of everyone. This includes emotional and physical safety.

Roles and responsibilities

The Governing Body is responsible for monitoring this policy's effectiveness and holding the headteacher to account for its implementation.

The Headteacher is responsible for reviewing and approving this policy.

She will ensure that the school environment encourages positive behaviour and that staff deal effectively with negative behaviour, and will monitor how staff implement this policy to ensure rewards and sanctions are applied consistently across the school.

In addition to this she is responsible for:

- Supporting teachers within their phase with frequent low-level disruptions through observations, parent meetings and adaptations
- Monitoring behaviour incidents within their phase to understand patterns and put in place additional training
- Addressing day to day incidents of behaviour as members of the Middle Leadership Team
- Liaising with Senior Leaders regarding serious incidents of behaviour

- Delivering the behaviour curriculum so that all children know, understand and are able to follow the rules of Ready, Respectful and Safe
- Modelling positive behaviour
- Providing a personalised approach to the specific behavioural needs of particular pupils e.g. organising an emotionally available adult for specific children at key points in the day – (this could include class teacher, TA and lunchtime supervisor)
- Recording factual behaviour incidents on CPOMs

The senior leadership team will support staff in responding to behaviour incidents.

Parents are expected to:

- Support their child in following the school rules of Ready, Respectful and Safe
- Inform the school of any changes in circumstances that may affect their child's behaviour
- Discuss any behavioural concerns with the class teacher promptly outside of teaching time

Children are expected to know, understand and follow the rules of Ready, Respectful and Safe.

Positive Relationships

Relationships at Delves Lane are given central importance: positive relationships are established, maintained and restored where needed, using evidence-based strategies (EEF, 2019).

Behaviour is understood to be communication and adults reflect on what a child is communicating with their behaviour if this is unclear. Adults consistently remain calm when responding to children's behaviour.

Classroom Management Strategies

At Delves Lane we focus on and praise positive behaviour. We have whole school classroom routines and high expectations for behaviour of all children (see Appendix 2a: Systems which support behaviour within the classroom). We have reward systems in place (see Appendix 2b: School Reward Systems) and place emphasis on praising effort and demonstration of the school values, as well as academic achievement from every child's starting point.

Children understand adult expectations of them and are clear on what is expected. Clarity and consistency are understood by all staff to be crucial to positive behaviour management.

Teachers are supported by middle and senior leaders for their phase to ensure that classroom behaviour management is consistent and positive.

Rewards and positive praise

Our aim is to develop children's intrinsic motivation and growth mindset, the belief that our success can be developed over time as we grow, make mistakes and learn. We acknowledge that extrinsic motivators help children establish positive behaviours, and develop intrinsic motivation, we use this alongside specific praise.

At Delves Lane, children are given specific praise for both their effort and achievements from their starting points. In addition to this verbal praise, children across the school are awarded house points. Below are some examples of when these would be awarded:

- Showing a growth mindset and trying hard in their learning
- Effort and participation in lessons
- Showing our school values, e.g. showing compassion to a peer
- Being a role model to others
- Taking responsibility of their own learning e.g. resources ready and homework completed
- Undertaking responsibilities in the wider school and community

House Points

Every time a pupil is given a house point on the board in their lessons, it is automatically added to their house points on Trackit Lights. The house with the most points gets recognition in assembly every week. When an individual pupil earns 50, 100, 200 and 250 points they receive bronze, silver, gold and the 'Head teachers award' certificates which are generated automatically in Trackit Lights and can be printed from the system. Trackit Lights will also identify pupils who have had constant good behaviour and have not received any sanctions for a specific date range. This makes sure that it is not just pupils who are overtly 'trying' to behave in the moment who get recognition, but also the pupils who never disturb the class but often go unnoticed.

Celebration Assemblies (Friday)

Celebration Assemblies are also held weekly. During these, teachers award a "Star of the Week" certificate to children in their class who have demonstrated the school rules in a variety of ways as well as praising high quality work and engagement. As reading is such a high priority in school, teachers also award a "Reader of the Week" to an individual for effort and/or engagement in reading.

During these assemblies, the totals for each house team are announced and the winning team is cheered. Every half termly a prize is awarded to the winning house.

A Golden Wellie Award is given to one child from each phase for good behaviour at lunchtime.

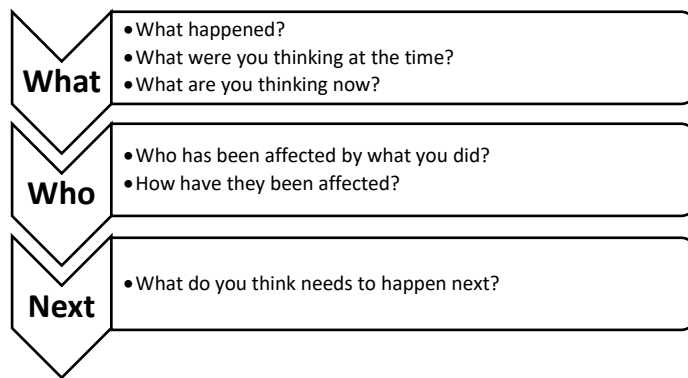

Class attendance is also awarded.

Other extra-curricular achievements e.g. sporting / musical awards are also celebrated if the child wishes to share these with the school.

Restorative Conversations

Based on extensive research we use Restorative Conversations at Delves Lane as an approach to understanding and managing behaviour.

Restorative conversations enable those children who have been harmed to convey the impact of the harm to those children who were responsible and for those responsible to acknowledge this impact and take steps to put it right. This could be child with child (mediated by an adult) or child with teacher or other staff member.

Adult dos and don'ts for promoting positive behaviour for learning

- Adults in the school will not shout- nothing is gained by being verbally aggressive or modelling a lack of control – reactions to negative behaviour should be non-emotional, limiting attention on the child, given in private where possible (i.e. not in full view of the class) and delivering a consequence if needed. After a lesson has finished, take time to explain your decision and give the child a chance to 'fix' the situation if appropriate (in addition to a consequence).
- Adults in the school will not use overly emotional words to describe behaviour (children's behaviour is never 'disgusting' or 'terrible'). They will be specific about describing behaviour.
- We describe the behaviour and the impact as well as the impact on the child and others: "You called x ... and that made x feel very angry/upset. We don't call people names at Delves Lane. You will need to miss some of your play whilst...."
- If an adult makes a mistake or jumps to an incorrect conclusion – they will apologise. It is important to model mistakes are normal and that we take responsibility for our actions.
- Adults will focus on redirecting behaviour back to learning rather than focusing on inappropriate behaviour.
- The tone of voice and the way the adult structures redirection so that it is aimed at the behaviour, not the child, is essential. Polite and calm language must be used at all times. A harsh, strident aggressive tone is counter-productive and produces a negative, aggressive response in the child's brain.
- Adults will use 'we' when talking about expectations: 'At Delves Lane, we keep each other safe so we do not throw pencils'.
- Adults will use 'if' and 'then' to clarify actions and consequences, e.g.: 'If you continue to be unsafe and throw a pencil, you will then miss your play.'
- Adults will follow through on 'if' and 'then' statements made but do not make threats which do not follow the school system and this includes giving class or group sanctions where an individual or individuals are at fault.
- Adults will ensure they arrive to collect pupils from play and lunchtimes promptly – arriving afterwards leads to unsupervised lines of children, which is not safe.

Limit setting, consequences and sanctions – KS1 and KS2

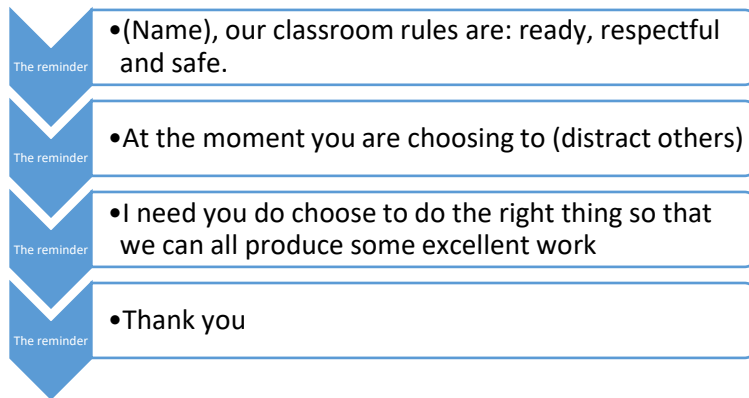

At Delves Lane we believe in public praise and private reprimands or sanctions. This ensures children are treated with dignity and respect.

Our expectation is that all children follow the rules of Ready, Respectful and Safe. These rules are explicitly taught through whole school assemblies and in class. They are referred back to throughout the year to re-establish expectations. In line with our whole school approach to behaviour and our inclusive ethos, we understand that some children require more support to meet this expectation.

If redirection and positive encouragement do not work, adults will use the warning system by going through the following steps (See Appendix: 3):

Step 1 The reminder (Script)

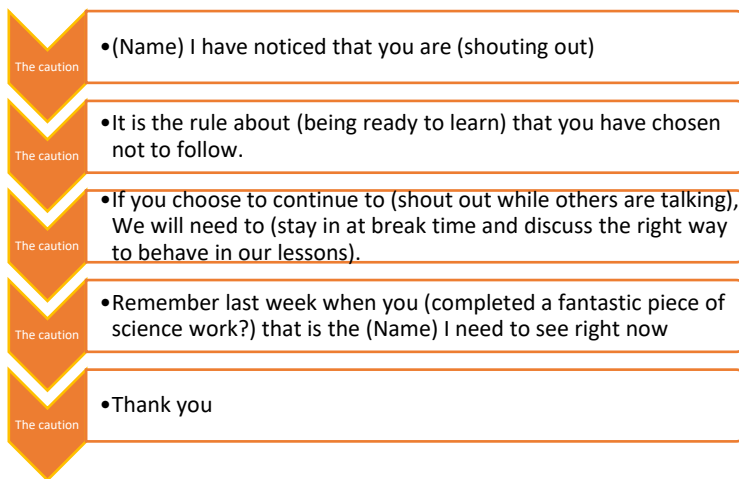

A reminder of the expectations for learners Ready, Respectful, Safe should be delivered to the learner. The teacher makes them aware of their behaviour. The learner has a choice to do the right thing. This conversation will be scripted as follows:

Step 2 The caution (Script)

A clear verbal caution delivered privately to the learner making them aware of their behaviour and clearly outlining the consequences if they continue. The learner has a choice to do the right thing. Learners will be reminded of their good previous good conduct to prove that they can make good choices.

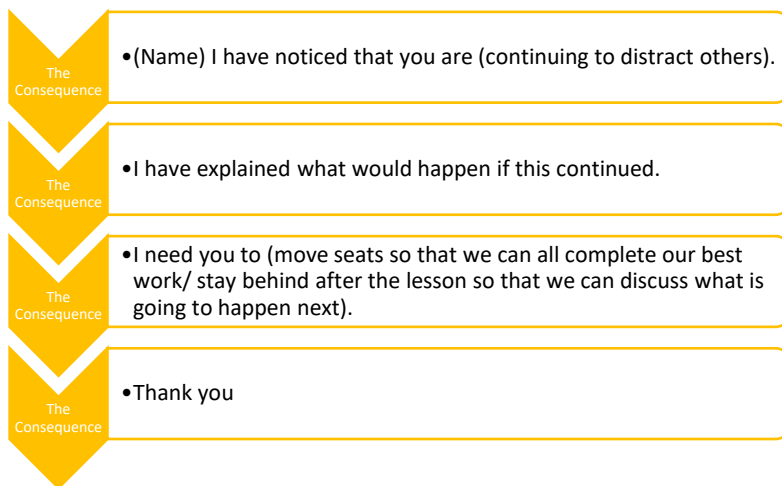

This conversation will be scripted as follows:

Step 3 The consequence (Script)

Where a learner's behaviour persists, it may be necessary to deliver a consequence. In this instance, children have been given a reminder and a caution and so have had the opportunity to correct their behaviour and make positive choices but have chosen not to do so. As children have been made aware of the consequence prior to its implementation, they have chosen to accept the consequence. If appropriate, the consequence should take place at the next play/lunch time. After the sanction has taken place then the child returns to Step 1. When deciding on an appropriate consequence for children, it is important to remember that it is not the severity of a consequence, but the certainty and immediacy that has the greatest impact. (See Appendix 3: Behaviour and Sanctions Chart for suitable consequences)

This conversation will be scripted as follows:

If the scripts are used multiple times in a short space of time for example a week, a discreet verbal conversation by class teacher with parents/carers is needed. This conversation will be recorded on Trackit System.

Step Four – If the low-level disruption continues and it's disrupting the learning of others, the child will be sent to work in another class (See Appendix 4: Receiving a child into class and back into class), ideally within the same year group but this may not always be possible. The child will take their learning with them. If the child refuses to leave the classroom or this is not deemed a sensible action, a calm call for "sugar paper" will be made and a member of the senior leadership team will assist (Step 5).

* This is time to calm, no blame or judgement is needed, this is a process. It allows the child to move on and return after no more than 15 minutes.

Step Five – Go to Phase Leader or SLT. If this is resisted, send a child to middle leader in same phase or if not possible, use walkie talkie to make a 'calm call for 'sugar paper' to request for SLT to come and collect them.

The Warning system is cumulative but it should begin again for each new incident. Warnings should not be held over children for longer than one teaching session.

Use of 'Sugar Paper' for serious incidents when staff will not need to go through the steps system

Some behaviour is of sufficient seriousness that it will be dealt with by a senior leader and no warnings will be given. These behaviours may include:

- Intentional Fighting where the purpose is to harm another pupil
- Vandalism (school property or that of other pupils)
- Throwing objects that endangers others
- Serious challenge to authority of any member of staff

See 'Appendix 3: Behaviour and sanctions chart' for further guidance

If a child is repeatedly struggling with their behaviour, and this is impacting on their or others learning or safety, this will be recorded on Trackit so that senior school staff can look for patterns, share this information with parents and other staff and co-create a personalised behaviour plan and will refer to external agencies for additional support.

Suspensions and exclusions

The Headteacher has the right to suspend (internal, external, fixed term or permanently exclude) a child. This will always be proportionate, only in extreme circumstances and in line with statutory guidance. After a suspension reintegration is prioritised – a member of the SLT will meet with the parent, child and teacher to ensure this is swift and effective.

The use of reasonable force

What is reasonable force?

- The term 'reasonable force' covers the broad range of actions used by most teachers at some point in their career that involve a degree of physical contact with pupils.
- 'Reasonable in the circumstances' means using no more force than is needed.
- Control means either passive physical contact, such as standing between pupils or blocking a pupil's path, or active physical contact such as leading a pupil by the arm out of a classroom.
- Restraint means to hold back physically or to bring a pupil under control. It is typically used in more extreme circumstances, for example when two pupils are fighting and refuse to separate without physical intervention.
- School staff should always try to avoid acting in a way that might cause injury, but in extreme cases it may not always be possible to avoid injuring the pupil.

Who can use reasonable force?

- All members of school staff have a legal power to use reasonable force.
- This power applies to any member of staff at the school. It can also apply to people whom the headteacher has temporarily put in charge of pupils such as unpaid volunteers or parents accompanying students on a school organised visit.

When can reasonable force be used?

- The use of reasonable force is an absolute last resort. If a child is at risk of hurting another child, then we ask the other child to remove themselves from the situation so they can't get hurt. The staff then talks to the child who is angry to calm them. Staff are asked to use every means possible to de-escalate a situation before having to resort to restraint. However, the safety of the child, other children and adults are the number one priority.
- Key members of staff have restraint training throughout the school and they should be called upon in the event of a child needing to be restrained. However, this may not be feasible in all situations.

In the unlikely event of a serious breach of behaviour the school can use reasonable force:

- When behaviour disrupts the learning of others and the child has refused to leave the classroom;
- To prevent a pupil from attacking a member of staff or another pupil, or to stop a fight in the playground
- When a pupil is at risk of harming themselves through physical outbursts.
- The school will record all attempts to restrain a child on CPOMS. If the school has restrained a child, then the parent will be informed.

The school cannot use force as a punishment – it is always unlawful to use force as a punishment.

Induction of new staff and pupils

SLT will ensure that all new staff are inducted into the school's behaviour culture so that they have a clear understanding of rules and routines. This will enable new staff to support all pupils to participate in creating the culture of the school.

Provision will be made for all new pupils to ensure they understand the school's behaviour policy and wider culture. This includes in-year transfer admits.

Pupils with Special Educational Needs

Sometimes behavioural difficulties in school are an indicator that a child has a Special Educational Need. When concerns are significant, we may ask our Special Educational Needs Coordinator to evaluate the case and seek additional support for a child, where appropriate. These pupils may require specific behaviour strategies and input, or an Individual Behaviour Plan which will be shared with parents. Advice from external agencies will be sought where appropriate and the needs of the child, the other pupils in the class and the staff will be taken into consideration. (Please also refer to SEND and Inclusion Policy.)

Route B

We understand that a very small number of our pupils will need a more bespoke and targeted approach to support good behaviour in school. At Delves Lane Primary, for consistency, we call this approach 'Route B'.

Children who require a Route B approach must have specific strategies put in place (see separate Appendix 5 Route B document for more detailed guidance).

Route B Rewards

Recognition remains the same as the main policy. However, more effort must be given to notice the pupil doing the right thing and praise can be offered in short bursts. Celebrate small successes with other staff in school to build self-esteem.

Route B Sanctions

Sanctions will remain the same as the main policy until a step 3 situation arises, this will be at the discretion of staff and SLT. Staff should be extra vigilant and remove children before a serious incident occurs. On occasions, calming down time will take place until the pupil is ready to reflect and compile and apology. The apology will be made when the child is totally calm and ready for learning again.

Use of calm areas will be shared with families with the target of reducing the removals over a period of time.

If the child is unsafe in the calm areas, SLT should be called. Similarly, if an unpredictable/sudden outburst occurs and children's/adults' safety is at risk, SLT should be called.

Behaviour around the school

See Appendix 6 - Expectations for moving around school and Appendix 7: Lunchtime Behaviour.

Early Years and Foundation Stage

For our youngest children, who are at the developmental stage, our pupils are learning how to behave appropriately. The Delves Lane approach to behaviour is rooted in our Early Years Curriculum; we recognise the uniqueness of each child and their developmental needs. Our learning environment is a safe place which nurtures self-respect, growing self-esteem, empathy for others and the ability to guide behaviour through learning social skills such as negotiation and problem solving.

At Delves Lane we are proud of the strong relationships modelled in the early years Nursery and Reception settings. Adults know children exceptionally well and these relationships support positive behaviour. The school values and being Ready, Respectful and Safe underpin practice here as with the rest of the school.

See Appendix 8: Early Years and Foundation Stage for further guidance.

Safeguarding

Delves Lane recognises that changes in behaviour may be an indicator or a child's way of communicating that they need help or protection. We will consider whether a child's misbehaviour may be linked to them suffering, or being likely to suffer, significant harm. Where this may be the case, we will follow our child protection and safeguarding policy.

Pupil transition

- To ensure a smooth transition to the next year, children are supported through transition sessions with their new teacher(s). In addition, teachers hold transition meetings (for identified children) with parents and time is given to teachers for class handover information (Summer Term Staff Meetings).
- To ensure behaviour is continually monitored and the right support is in place, information related to child behaviour issues may be transferred to relevant staff at the start of the term or year.
- Delves Lane fulfils its statutory duty for the transfer of files to the child's onward school when they leave.

Child conduct outside the school gates

Delves Lane has the highest expectations of its children's behaviour beyond the school gates. Their behaviour is a reflection of the school and can influence its reputation. Behaviour incidents will be dealt with in line with this policy. This also includes incidents online which impacts learning in school. The police may be called if the behaviour is considered anti-social, criminal or poses a serious threat to another person.

Searching and confiscation

The Headteacher and staff authorised by them have a statutory power to search pupils or their possessions, without consent, where they have reasonable grounds for suspecting that the pupil may have a prohibited item. Prohibited items include: knives or weapons, alcohol, illegal drugs, stolen items, tobacco and cigarette papers, fireworks, pornographic images, any article that could reasonably be considered likely to be used to commit a criminal offence, cause injury, damage property or has been banned by the school.

School staff can confiscate any prohibited item found as a result of the search. School staff can also confiscate any item they consider harmful or detrimental to school discipline.

Record keeping and data analysis

We use the CPOMS system to record safeguarding concerns and Trackit/CPOMS for behaviour incidents. This allows the timely sharing of information, a joined-up approach and early identification of any issues. It also enables data to be robustly and purposefully integrated by the senior leadership team.

Induction and training

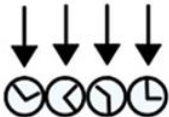

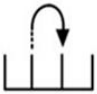

- Staff can access support to improve their practice from their phase leads and SLT.
- Our staff are provided with training on managing behaviour, including proper use of restraint (when appropriate), as part of their induction process.
- Behaviour management will also form part of continuing professional development.
- Identified Phase Leads (TLR Posts) to complete the NPQ Behaviour and Culture.

The application of this policy

The Positive Behaviour Policy is for all of our school community. If it is to be effective, then everyone must use it with consistency and confidence.

Through acknowledging behaviour is communication and leading with empathy and kindness, in line with our school values we believe every child will leave our school as a responsible and compassionate member of society, exercising and understanding tolerance, kindness and fairness.

We ask an adult for help if someone feels physically unsafe.
	We keep each other emotionally safe by being kind 	We ask others how they are. We notice if others need support and offer kindness and support when it's needed. We compliment others. We are aware of the different ways people communicate, when happy or sad. We understand and respect that everyone is different. We respect the privacy of others. We respect others' boundaries and sensitivities. We know we can say if we are uncomfortable.
	We keep our environment safe and use equipment safely 	We leave the environment how we would like to find it. We pick things up off the floor and keep things tidy. We use scissors safely and appropriately. We use equipment and resources in areas where it is safe to use them. We tuck in our chairs. We use the internet safely and know who to ask if we feel uncomfortable. We take pride in the book corner and look after the books in the school.
	We follow adults' instructions 	We listen and respond promptly. We respect adult instructions. We ask for an explanation if we have misunderstood or we are confused in a respectful way. We know there are different types of instructions to follow. We listen to instructions fully. We use other resources (such as the White Board slides or the working walls) if we are not sure before asking for help.
